Saturday, July 24

9 AM to 4 PM in River Hills, SC

Taught by Patrice Gaines, Award Winning Author & Journalist

Writer Patrice Gaines (www.patricegaines.com) guides women writers through an intensive workshop that is a practical approach to creating a manuscript that sells. The workshop will explain how to give your new project a boost with a spellbinding beginning or inspire you with a fresh approach for an ongoing project.

This workshop is for both fiction and non-fiction writers and includes exercises that will teach you how to use effective dialogue and when to “show” instead of “tell” your story. Learn how to compose an outline that will lead you through the project and to the end of your manuscript.
